Summary

I am a postdoctoral researcher in data science and statistics at UCLouvain, working on issues related to mortality. Before that, I obtained a PhD in statistics at UCLouvain, where my research focused on survival analysis and biostatistical methods applied to cancer patients. In parallel with my research, I teach statistics and probability as a visiting lecturer at UCLouvain and UNamur.

Education

2024 PhD in statistics – UCLouvain, Belgium

2016 MSc in econometrics – Maastricht University, Netherlands

2015 MSc in economics – KU Leuven, Belgium, with an exchange program at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA (2014)

2013 BSc in economics – UCLouvain, Belgium

Research experience

2024 – Present Postdoctoral researcher in data science and statistics – UCLouvain & ULiège, Belgium

2017 – 2024 Doctoral researcher in statistics – UCLouvain, Belgium

Teaching experience

2023 – Present Visiting lecturer in statistics – UCLouvain & UNamur, Belgium

2017 – 2024 Teaching assistant in statistics – UCLouvain, Belgium

2018 – 2024 Instructor for UCLouvain's university certificates in statistics – SMCS, Belgium

Industry experience

2018 – 2024 Consultant in statistics and data analysis – SMCS, Belgium
- Statistical consulting for researchers and academics

2016 – 2017 Data scientist – Business & Decision, Belgium
- Involved in several projects focusing on data science and data visualization

Academic service

2024 – Present Reviewer for Open Forum Infectious Diseases (OFID), SoftwareX, The Journal of Open Source Software (JOSS), Scientific Reports, Frontiers in Nutrition, Journal of Robotic Surgery (JORS), Frontiers in Epidemiology and BMC Public Health

2020 – 2024 Doctoral student representative at the Thematic Doctoral School of Statistics and Actuarial Sciences, F.R.S.-FNRS and at the Louvain School of Statistics, Biostatistics and Actuarial Sciences (LSBA), UCLouvain

Student supervision

2025 – 2026 Co-supervision, with Prof. Cédric Heuchenne, of a PhD student and of two master's theses.

Technical skills & languages

Software R, Python, GitHub, SQL, Jamovi, JASP, Web development

Teaching

Visiting lecturer

2026 – Present	Probability and mathematical statistics (UNamur, ECGEB252)
2026 – Present	Biostatistics and information's critical analysis (UCLouvain, LVETE1262)
2024 – 2026	Multivariate statistical analysis (UCLouvain, LINGE1222)
2024 – 2026	Statistics (UNamur, ECGEB152)
2023 – 2024	Advanced quantitative methods (UNamur, EINGM105)

Teaching assistant (UCLouvain)

2023 – 2024	Data exploration and introduction to statistical inference (LMAFY1101)
2022 – 2024	Statistics and data sciences with R: Advanced programming (LDATS2030)
2022 – 2024	Economics and management statistics II (LECGE1224)
2022 – 2024	Analysis of survival and duration data (LSTAT2220)
2021 – 2024	Biostatistics and information's critical analysis (LVETE1262)
2017 – 2024	Statistical processing of data (WFARM1247)
2021 – 2022	Econometrics (LINGE1221)
2020 – 2021	Statistics and data sciences (LEPL1109)
2018 – 2019	Data analysis (LSTAT2110)
2019 – 2023	Discrete data analysis (LSTAT2100)
2017 – 2023	Statistics (LESPO2102)
2017 – 2021	Multivariate statistical analysis (LINGE1222)
2017 – 2020	Probability and statistics (LFSAB1105)
2017 – 2018	Further statistics (LINGE1214)

University certificates (UCLouvain)

2023	Introduction to LaTeX
2021 – 2023	Introduction to data analysis with R
2018 – 2021	Junior data analyst
2019 – 2020	Practice of statistics with R
